Responsibilities

We imagine that the person who fills this role will spend their time in the following ways:

Program Operations

- Develop and execute engaging programming that is aligned with achieving strategic objectives
- Design program evaluation methods to collect, analyze, and collaboratively communicate quantitative and qualitative data that showcases programmatic impact
- Identify opportunities for programmatic improvement, determine the root-cause of problem areas, analyze data, and implement solutions to maximize program impact
- Work collaboratively with operations staff to ensure at-market programming is seamlessly integrated into the market experience and is adequately staffed
- Work collaboratively with development staff to ensure compliance with grant requirements including providing support for applications, reports, site visits, and other tasks related to programmatic funding
- Work collaboratively with communication staff to share stories of programmatic impact that furthers philanthropic support of GCM's work
- Cultivate deep and thoughtful relationships with critical programmatic partners to achieve GCM's goals

Leadership

- Recruit, hire, and coach direct reports while displaying a deep commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion
- Maintain effective management practices such as regular check-ins, 90-day reviews, professional development plans, and annual performance evaluations with direct reports
- Manage programming-related budget line items, accurately forecasting expenditures and revenue
- Contribute to a collaborative, positive, and professional work environment for the organization and its staff
- Effectively and passionately communicates GCM's vision to the broader community

Applicant Profile

A successful applicant will:

- Demonstrate a deep conviction to Green City Market's mission, vision, and values
- Have 3+ years of professional experience with a proven track-record of success with nonprofit programming
- Be a collaborative and communicative leader with experience leading teams of full-time, part-time, and seasonal staff
- Have the ability to be self-motivated and a balanced preference and ability to work independently and with a team
- Have experience in program-level budgeting (creation, forecasting, reporting, and analysis)
- Continually promote and achieve high standards of quality at work, apply attention to detail to the execution of all projects and constantly look for problems to solve and ways to improve
- Enjoy designing, implementing, and managing complex, long-term projects through the development of processes/systems to meet deadlines, fulfill commitments, track progress, and achieve goals
- Possess excellent interpersonal skills and the ability to interact with a diverse group of people, including fellow staff members, market vendors, donors, and other key stakeholders
- Exhibit integrity, discretion, and professional maturity to handle highly confidential information
- Have the ability to lift 50 pounds as this position may required the set-up/tear-down of tents, tables, the moving of program bins, or other physical activities
- Willingness to work outdoors in a variety of weather conditions at market or events
- Have technology proficiencies (GCM uses Google Suite for Nonprofit, PCs, Quickbooks Online, and other systems to manage operations)
- Candidates with Spanish, Russian, or Polish language proficiency are encouraged to apply

Studies have shown that women, nonbinary folks, and People of Color are less likely to apply for jobs unless they believe they meet every single one of the qualifications described in a job description. We are committed to building a diverse and inclusive organization and we are most interested in finding the best candidate for the job. That candidate may be one who comes from a background less traditional to our field of work, and that's okay! Candidates who possess a familiarity with issues related to the local food system are preferred. We strongly encourage all interested candidates to apply.

Work Environment

The Programs Manager will work in a variety of settings. Our market operations are essential and are conducted in-person and in all weather types: rain, snow, or shine!
